Dear Sirs:

I have been using the Trioxnator for approximately 2 months.

Originally, I was using the unit to help my hair, I have noticed much improvement with that specifically my hair is thicker, more manageable and experienced new growth on the top of my head and also at the front of my head. This has truly surprised me.

I also started using the Trioxinator for other minor skin related issues, it to has surprised me.

I have noticed that my razor burn I had for many years has disappeared completely, I also noticed that lines I was getting on my chin have diminished by at least 50% in just 1 month.

I am really excited about this and will be trying it on other issues and will report back.

Thanks
